

Local Roofing Contractor Wins Firestone Master Contractor Award

SHELBYVILLE, Ky. – March 2004 – Firestone Building Products Company recently presented Holland Roofing of Louisville Inc. with the 2004 Master Contractor Award to recognize the company’s quality workmanship on roof installations during 2003.

“The Master Contractor distinction is a level of achievement reached by those contractors who consistently demonstrate superior craftsmanship and professionalism,” said Bob Delaney, vice president of sales and marketing for Firestone Building Products. “Firestone applauds the outstanding work performed by Holland Roofing of Louisville Inc. and congratulates them on their success.”

2004 marks the fifth time Holland Roofing of Louisville Inc. has achieved Master Contractor status. Firestone-licensed contractors earn the Master Contractor Award each year based on total square footage and Quality Points accumulated for achieving exceptional inspection ratings on Firestone Red Shield warranted RubberGard™ EPDM, UltraPly™ Thermoplastic and Asphalt-based roofing system installations. In the 17th year of the award program, 269 commercial roofing contractors throughout the U.S. and Canada achieved 2004 Master Contractor status.
